West Ohio Conference Center || 32 Wesley Blvd., Worthington, OH

Lab 1: Personal Leadership

“Any of our doing that does not grow out of our being falls flat on its face”

-- Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

Whether you've been leading for a while or are just starting to use your influence with others, the most important person that you will lead is yourself. Who you are is how you lead now. Who you want to become is where you will lead others in the future. The Personal Leadership Lab invites you to pause, refresh, anchor yourself in your faith values, and stretch into your Working Genius to be your best self as a leader. Register here.

Lab 2: Collaborative Leadership

“Without trust, you can’t accomplish extraordinary things.”

-- The Leadership Challenge

As a leader, the most important, motivating currency you have is trust. Leading others to do extraordinary things begins with trust in God, yourself, and others. The Collaborative Leadership Lab invites you to hone your leadership skills to effectively build and grow interpersonal and group trust, ownership, and innovation. Also, bring your team! We will explore how to steward each team members' Working Genius to accomplish extraordinary things together. Register here.

Lab 3: Community Leadership

“Healthy community is always looking for who isn’t here.”

-- Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

When communities are healthy, transformation happens. Healthy communities, however, do not just happen. They are intentionally built and nurtured by leaders. The Community Leadership Lab is designed for leaders who desire to transform their teams and organizations into communities of belonging. Together, we will explore theology, theories, and practices that help us activate effective, impactful community-building practices. Register here.
